Wrangell Casts A Good Vote

Wrangell voters along with the rest of Alaska had their chance at the polls last Tuesday and certainly used it a total of 144 votes being cast which went as follows: James Wickersham 108, Chas. Bunnell 17 and Alford Brooks 9 for Senator, Chas. Sulzer 60, M. J. O'Connor 45 and Lorenzen 10. For Representative the vote was Wm. Britt 50, John G. Heid 59, McGraw 54, J. R. Washington Go Dry By 15,000 Votes

Believed Oregon Going Dry

Portland, Nov. 5.—It is felt here that Oregon is sure to go dry by the election Tuesday. All of the returns are not in but at present the dries are ahead.

Democrats Lose In Election

Washington, D. C., Nov. 5.—The Democratic majority was reduced in the election Tuesday to 23 in the House and 14 in the Senate.

The Northwestern is due in Wrangell from the south early Friday morning.

Delegate to Congress James Wickersham
Who was reelected to his 4th term by the voters of Alaska last Tuesday

The crew who have been at work for the past month clearing snags from the Stikine river returned to town last Monday. They report some very great improvements on the river.

Big Time At Masquerade

The Moose Orchestra held their Halloween Mask Ball at the Rink last Saturday evening as announced. The affair was a good success except possibly the absence of gentlemen maskers. The dance started promptly at nine, and after an hour and a half of mask dancing the masks were taken off and the large crowd that had assembled made the rest of the evening merry. The prizes were won as follows: Waltz, Mrs. Reade and Chas. Lynch. Two Step, Mrs. Hood and T. Anderson. Best Sustained Characters, Mrs. Leonard and Mr. Odds. Most Gorgeous Costume, Mrs. Grant and Mr. Green and the Most Comical, Mr. Jones. The music served by the Orchestra was the best ever, and the several new pieces they played made a big hit.

Winning Senators In Election

New York—The Democrat majority in the house will be reduced to a minimum: The following Democratic Senators were elected last Tuesday: Underwood, Ala., Clark, Ark., Fletcher, Fla., Hardwick, Ga., Beckham, Ky., Bruns, La., Stone, Mo., Overman, N. C., Gore, Okla., Smith, Ga., Chamberlain, Ore.

The Complete returns show the following Republican Senators elected Tuesday: Bradegee, Conn., Brady, Idaho, Cummins, W. Va., Gallinger, N. H., Wadsworth, N. Y., Gronna, N. D., Harding, Ohio, Penrose, Pa., Dillingham, Vt. This indicates that the Republican gain is 54 members in the house and reduces the present majority minimum from 141 to 33.

Fire Boys Hold Meeting

The Wrangell Fire Department held their regular meeting at the City Hall last Monday evening. The feature of the evening was the thorough discussion of a base ball park for Wrangell. The idea is one that should be thoroughly worked out, and it is certainly possible for Wrangell to have a good ground and with the rest of Alaska enjoy the national game. Several persons have already come forward with promises of financial assistance if the boys can get ground. The fire boys appointed a committee to look into this and report at the next meeting of the company.

Big Black Bear Visits Petersburg

[Contributed from Petersburg]

Last Sunday afternoon a black bear came walking down second street between the houses. One big dog was smelling a little too close and had to vamoose. The bear didn't seem to mind the strange surroundings but kept walking slowly along. Stentzel Lersten, the baker, was sitting eating lunch and saw the bear coming. The only weapon they had, an old shotgun, did the trick and Mr. Bear is now on exhibition at the baker shop.

For another term the election day has come and gone. The best men have won. For the day last Tuesday the common people were kings, to them the man higher up was ready to bow and meet on equal terms. Their will was expressed and their decision is abided by. They voted for the men they thought best suited to handle the government of our Territory for the coming term and the best were elected. In saying the best were elected we do not mean that the men defeated were not as able to fill their respective positions as the men elected but the will of the masses voting as they thought best have elected these men and as they go to fill their new positions in making the laws of this great Northland of ours may it ever be foremost in their minds the interests of the common masses on whose vote they are there.

For the fourth time the people of Alaska have expressed their faith in Delegate Wickersham and sent him back to Washington to represent them in the halls of Congress. In the election held last Tuesday, James Wickersham won over his Democratic opponent by a good thousand majority. The career of James Wickersham has been one of fitting for Alaska and what he thought was the best interests of the Territory. During the past six years that he has represented us he has secured some of the best measures that have ever been enacted for the Territory and the people who cast their vote for him last Tuesday have the feeling that during the next two years he will continue to work for our best interests as he has in the past and we assure you that the feeling will not be lost. James Wickersham has made good and all of Alaska must feel a certain sense of pride in his achievements and his reelection. He has been sent back by the will of the people because they felt that Alaska needed him. Congress needed him, and the whole country needed him and with the assured fact he is going to continue his work for Alaska in the years to come it is not beyond the possibility that at some future election he will be sent back as a Senator from Alaska.

Alaskan News From Exchanges

For the second time, Ruby has voted not to incorporate.

Some remarkable quartz discoveries are again reported at Chigof.

The Progressive, formerly a Petersburg publication, now comes to us from Ketchikan.

A bogus five dollar bill has made its appearance at Ketchikan, contrary to the statutes in such cases made and provided.

At Prince Rupert burglars made a successful raid on October 12th, and nipped watches and jewelry to the amount of five hundred dollars.

Right in the midst of an exciting campaign, the Fairbanks section has petitioned for a bridge across Chena Slough. They want a bridge that won't wash out every spring.

The Yes Bay hatchery, near Ketchikan, has shipped five million salmon eggs to Puget Sound, where the process of incubation will be completed and the young fry liberated.

The Pacific Coast Company is now shipping large quantities of their Black Diamond briquets to British Columbia ports, where they are sold at prices $1 a ton higher than the home product.

Henry Brentley, a Fairbanks boy, shot himself. He was examining a gun, when the thing went off. The charge struck him in the leg, and the doctor says that unless complications set in the member may be saved.

The Indians on the Noatak River are not wandering far from their homes this season, as their hunters have reported seeing the tracks of the "devil" while on a caribou hunt. The natives in that section do not make their own hootch.

Cordova weather prophets predict an early and severe winter. From Nome comes the news that the natives of that section also predict an early winter, basing their opinion on the fact that the brown ptarmigan are turning white much earlier than usual and large numbers of ducks have already been observed winging their way south.

The Cordova town council has forwarded a petition to Judge Brown, of the federal court, asking that he grant no further liquor licenses in that town until the population shall have reached 1500.

Commissioner Dillon, of Fairbanks, in naming the judges of election, named one woman to act in nearly every precinct, both in towns and on the creeks. He believes that since they are entitled to vote they are also entitled to act as judges.

Reports from various game wardens all over the territory show that big game is growing scarce in Alaska. The territory is so large that the present force of game wardens cannot possibly cover every part. The miners and Indians are usually careful not to shoot any more game than is needed for their immediate purposes. This is not always true of hunters who come from the outside and are given permits.

A Fairbanks paper makes the statement that all employees of the White Pass system are required to contribute $2 a month to the war fund. Supt. Wheeler, of the above named system, declares the statement false; that the aforesaid employees are given the opportunity to contribute, but there is no compulsion about it.

Secretary Lane has finally decided to remove the land office for Alaska from Seattle to Juneau, the removal to take effect the first of January next.

Great satisfaction is expressed throughout the country over the removal of this important division of the land office to a point nearer its field of operation, thus facilitating the immense amount of work for the land office in connection with the opening of the coal fields and the construction of the railroad.—Progressive.

Returns From State Election

Last Tuesday was election day for the whole of the United States and below we give a condensed returns from the different states.

Seattle—The Republicans of this state claim a sweeping victory last Tuesday. The Democrats increased their majority in the Senate by 10 to 12 and retain the control of the house. The Republican net gain of 42 seems sure.

Illinois—Sullivan appears elected here over Sherman for the Senate, Uncle Joe Cannon, 78 years of age, was sweepingly elected to his twentieth term of Congress.
McKinley, formerly chairman of the Republican National Committee was reelected, also Fuller and Sterling, who were defeated two years ago.

New York—The election of Wadsworth makes no changes in the Senate and was a big surprise to the Administration as was also the election of Whitman. William Sulzer stated yesterday morning
"The verdict of the people speaks for itself, without money and without newspaper support and without organization I have elected Whitman and beaten Glynn, and made Roosevelt look like thirty cents."
Davenport and Payne were reelected.

Pennsylvania—Brumbaugh was elected Governor Tuesday. Penrose had all his own way for Congress as Pinchot made a very poor showing.

Indiana—Korbly the Democrat candidate to Congress was defeated Tuesday by Moore, Republican.

Tennessee—This state went Democratic at the election Tuesday, Hooper the present Republican Governor was defeated by Ryed, and a full Democratic legislature was elected.

Alabama—All of the southern Senators appear to have won in the election Tuesday including Underwood of Alabama, Chadwick of Georgia, J. C. W. Beckham of Kentucky who gets long term and Camden gets the short term.

Wisconsin—McGavin, republican and formerly Governor, succeeds Stephenson to the Senate.

Conn.—Dr. Brandegee, republican, was reelected to the Senate Tuesday over Baldwin democrat and former Governor.

Iowa—Clarke the Republican Governor is leading Hamilton the Democrat candidate by four thousand. It is practically certain that all Republican congressmen are elected in all but two districts.

Notice To Parents

Children have been seen coming in contact with electric light wires, either by throwing ropes across, or reaching with sticks and poles.

Under our new system the main line will be a high and dangerous voltage, therefore instruct your children to leave the wires alone in every way before some accident befalls them.

Won an Answer.
Ty Cobb, Detroit's star baseball player, gets as much mail as a member of congress. Letters come to him from girls who admire his style of beauty, from boys who study his style of batting and from seasoned "fans." If he attempted to answer them all his batting arm would soon be a wreck.
One morning in Chicago during the past season he was examining his mail. Out of the fifty odd communications before him he took one.
"This letter," he said, "is the only one that gets a rise out of me. I'm going to write to this old fellow."
He passed the letter to a friend, who read:
Dere Marster Cobb—How you kumin long? My rispecks to Madom Cobb.
Please sir rite me a line. Dere niggers down here in Missipi says I don't know you and I wants to show dem yore letter.
Yores rispeckful, BEN JACKSON.

The Wonder of It.
A traveler who was "seeing Ireland"
in a small cart berated the Irish driver for failing to point out a sight in a part of Dublin they had just passed.

"THERE'S A MILESTONE"
A few yards farther the cart came to a stop which almost threw the passenger out.
"Why did you stop so suddenly?"
asked the man.
"Well, an' there's a milestone," came the answer from Pat.
"But what is there strange about a milestone?" again questioned the sightseer.
"Shure," spoke out Pat, "an' ye sei-dom see two o' them together."—Philadelphia Times.

Asparagus.
Asia is said to be the native soil of the asparagus. Yet the Romans cultivated it with such marvelous success that the stalks raised at Ravenna are said to have weighed three pounds each, and we are asked to believe that the African variety grown in Libya reached a height of twelve feet.

Cyclones.
A cyclone is a circular storm varying from 50 to 500 miles in diameter and revolving round a center that may advance forty miles an hour.

The Turkey.
The turkey is an American bird.
Lucullus and the Epicureans did not know about him. He was found in his wild state after Columbus' time.
About a hundred years after the discovery of America broiled young turkeys became great delicacies on the Frenchman's table.

The Foxhound.
The foxhound travels over the fields at the rate of sixty feet a second.

Colored Glass.
Colored glass came from Egypt. The Egyptians carried the art to great perfection apparently before history begins to tell of it.

Can These Be Answered?
What substance gives the paper weight? On what sea does the bargain sale? What clothing does the china ware? What ensign does the ocean wave? Do herring dance at a

Expecting Too Much.
Customer (sarcastically)—I've managed to cut this steak, but I'm bothered if I can chew it. Waiter—Yes, sir.
We guarantee our knives, but our responsibility does not extend to our customers' teeth.—London Punch.

Your Days.
Every day that is born into the world comes like a burst of music and rings itself all the day through, and thou shalt make it a dance, a dirge or a life march, as thou wilt.— Carlyle.

The Senator's Wife (in Washington).
—You are sure they are nice people,
Augusta? The Senator's Daughter—
Yes, mamma. Their father is owned by the same trust that owns papa.—
Puck.

The Life of a File.
One cannot discard a file whenever it has lost its first keenness, but there comes a time, much sooner than is usually supposed, when an old file does not pay. It is not difficult to calculate when this time has come.
Say a man receives 25 cents an hour and is using a file that costs 25 cents.
Whenever the use of an old file takes that man half as long again to do a piece of work as a new file would take, then in three hours' work with an old file the price of a new file has been lost. The time to throw away the old file has come before that stage was reached.—Blacksmith and Wheelwright.
